Situation Update

Operation UNIFIED RESPONSE

(U) The overall situation will remain calm and continues to improve in all areas. Shelter and medicine remain top priorities for Haitians and relief agencies. Criminal elements will continue to re-group and compete for territory; violent crime will remain in traditional high crime areas of Cite Soleil, Martissant, La Saline, and Bel Air. Food prices will likely continue to increase where supply is low, and decrease where supplies are high. No mass migration from Haiti is expected in the near term.

(U) Security/Threat Activity

NC

- No security incidents at DPs
- Inter-gang violence reported in Martissant; Initial reports indicate up to 5 gang members killed
- Armed escorts of US convoys between PaP and the Dominican Republic will reportedly cease today; convoys and shuttle service will continue with local guards patrolling routes as necessary

(U) Infrastructure

NC

- IFRC reporting indicates an estimated 80,000 people in Leogane and 30,000 in Jacmel require shelter

(U) Medical

NC

- Doctors expressed concern over the potential for an outbreak of tuberculosis.
- Haiti has the most reported cases of tuberculosis out of any country in the western hemisphere.

(U) Governance

NC

- Food prices, including wheat and bread, have increased in some areas outside of Port au Prince; prices continue to decline in Port au Prince
- Cuba and Venezuela supplying generators to Saint Marc

(U) Migration/Internal Relocation

NC

- Sailboat carrying 62 Haitians was intercepted off the coast of the Bahamas
- No indications of mass migration
