SELECTED PUBLICATIONS OF THE FOOD RESEARCH INSTITUTE

THE PAPALOAPAN PROJECT: AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT IN THE MEXICAN TROPICS

Thomas T. Poleman

$4.50

"a thoroughly documented and convincing analysis of the first major attempt by a Latin American government to solve the pressing man/land relationship problem through a large-scale combined reclamation, agriculture, and colonization effort."—Hispanic American Historical Review.

---

CANADIAN AGRICULTURE IN WAR AND PEACE 1935-1950

G. E. Britnell and V. C. Fowke

$8.75

The fourfold purpose of this book is to assess the contribution of Canadian agriculture to the Allied war effort, to note the impact of the war on the Canadian farmer, to outline the readjustments that were made in response to this impact and the means by which wartime adjustments were made, and to indicate the steps by which the Canadian farming community returned to peacetime circumstances.—"the authors accomplish all four tasks admirably"—American Historical Review.

MANIOC IN AFRICA

William O. Jones

$6.75

"This study is important for all concerned with tropical agriculture and economic development, and for Africanists in particular..."—American Anthropologist.

---

THE STAPLE FOOD ECONOMIES OF WESTERN TROPICAL AFRICA

Bruce F. Johnston

$6.00

"The great merit of this book is that for once it gives under one cover a general picture of West African staple foodstuffs and to most English-speaking readers it is invaluable that so much data should have been included from the former French territories and from the Congo."—West Africa (London).
