ANNOUNCEMENT

THE INDIAN SOCIETY OF AGRICULTURAL ECONOMICS PRIZE AWARDS FOR 1960

Under the Schemes of Annual Prize Awards instituted by the Society, the following prizes will be awarded for the year 1960.

- (1) Two prizes under Scheme No. I for best articles on : "Role of Agriculture in Economic Development—A critical resume of India's planning experience in the context of general theory and Indian conditions."
- (2) Two prizes under Scheme No. II for the best paper of published research in Agricultural Economics.

The first prize under each of the above Schemes is of the value of Rs. 500 and the second prize is of the value of Rs. 250.

Rules for the Award

1. Selections for Scheme No. II will be made from research papers published not earlier than 1st July 1959.
2. The article or paper selected for Award under Scheme No. I shall not be entitled for a further Award under Scheme No. II.
3. Papers which may have received previous Award by any other Institution or the Society will not be eligible for competition under the Scheme.

Conditions for Eligibility

1. The candidates entering for the Prize Awards shall be either teachers or students of Economics.
 - (i) The candidates shall have qualified themselves by holding the first Degree of any Indian University.
 - (ii) They shall have done or be engaged in some original research work as a part of Post-graduate research study, or independent research work under a recognised Institute, or under the guidance of an Economist.

The Awards Committee shall have the discretion to determine the Institutes which can be considered as recognised institutions for this purpose. The condition may be waived in cases where the standard of research of the selected article or piece of published research is of exceptional merit.

2. The entries of the Awards shall be endorsed by the Administrative Head of the University, College, School or Institute, as the case may be, along with a statement from the Head of the Institution giving particulars of age, the period of work and the nature of research work, if any, of the candidate.
3. The entrants for the Prizes under Scheme Nos. I and II shall ordinarily not be over 40 years of age.

Dates of Entry and Announcement
