- a. Any employee covered by this Agreement, or Union, or Employer can file a proper grievance and it shall be processed in accordance with the Grievance Procedure hereinafter provided. The parties shall make a sincere and determined effort to settle meritorious grievances and to keep the procedure free from unmeritorious grievances.
- b. An employee believing he has cause for a grievance must first take the matter up with his employer, or his Union Representative (who shall be recognized by the Employer) within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of said grievance. In the event the Union Representative is designated by the grievant to pursue his dispute, the Union Representative must discuss the grievance within fourteen (14) days of notice with the Employer. Recognizing the value and importance of full discussion in clearing up disputes and preserving harmonious relations, the time table herein above mentioned must be complied with, otherwise said grievance shall be forever waived.
- c. If the dispute is not settled pursuant to (b) of this Article, the disputant or his representative must, within fourteen (14) days, reduce the dispute to writing on a form known as "Information of Complaint or Grievance", setting forth facts relied on and shall be presented in triplicate of the Employer or his designated representative.
- d. The Employer's or his designated representative's disposition shall be in writing, setting forth in detail all facts relied upon in support of his disposition, and shall be made as expeditiously as possible consistent with proper investigation but in no event more than five (5) working days, Sundays and Holidays excluded, from the time of written presentation, and shall be returned by the Employer or his designated representative to the Union representative who presented it.
- e. If the above efforts fail to achieve a satisfactory adjustment of the grievance, it must, within seven (7) working days of the date of the Employer's delivery to the Union Representative of the disposition to the grievance, be referred to the adjustment board for consideration. Failure to comply shall constitute complete waiver of dispute.
- f. An adjustment board, consisting of two (2) members representing each of the parties hereto, shall be set up for the purpose of hearing and deciding grievances of members of the Union and of the Employer relating to provisions of this contract. Such board shall meet with the complainant or his representative within seventy-two (72) hours after submission and shall render its decision within seventy-two (72) hours after termination of such hearing.
- g. If the four (4) members of the adjustment board are unable to settle a dispute within said seventy-two (72) hours, they shall, upon written request of either party, call in a fifth member who shall be a disinterested party, and who shall act as Chairman. In the event the members of the adjustment board fail to agree on a Chairman, an authorized representative of the Director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service shall be called upon to provide a panel of seven experience arbitrators, and each party shall alternately strike a name from the panel until one remains. The person whose name remains shall serve as Chairman. The decision of said board shall be in writing and accepted as final and binding the parties hereto.

- h. All decisions made by the adjustment board or by the impartial Chairman shall be complied with within two (2) working days after receipt of written notice of such decision by the party against whom the decision is rendered. Upon failure to comply, the prevailing party shall be entitled to immediately apply to the Superior Court for judgement upon the decision.
- i. There shall be no cessation of work nor lockout during pendency of such adjustment or arbitration. However, should the Employer or Union refuse to submit to the adjustment board upon complaint against the Employer or Union, the party against whom the complaint has been brought shall lose all rights and privileges under this Agreement, and the Union or the Employer, as the case may be, shall be free to take action to enforce any rights which it may possess irrespective of any provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XV

It is agreed that for the purpose of carrying out the terms of this Agreement, including the administration of all supplemental benefit plans, that a duly accredited representative of the Union shall contact the Employer or his representative, if the Employer is unavailable, at a reasonable hour, and provide adequate notice to exercise the right to visit the Employer's property and buildings during working hours for the purpose of ascertaining whether the terms of this Agreement are being observed by the parties hereto, provided, however, that meetings between such representative and employee(s) shall in no way stop, hamper or interrupt the normal flow of work.

ARTICLE XVI

No Strike - No Lockout

It is agreed that during the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise in this Agreement provided, that neither the Union, its officers or members shall instigate, call, sanction, condone or participate in any strike, slowdown, stoppage of work, boycott, picketing or willful interference with production, transportation or distribution, and that there shall be no lockout of employees by the Employer.

In the event that any of the employees violate the provisions of the above paragraph, the Union shall immediately order any of its members who participate in such action back to their jobs, forward copies of such order to the Employer and use any means at its disposal to influence the employees to return to work.

Any employee failing to report back to work within eight (8) hours of the strike, slowdown, stoppage, boycott or picketing or failing to cease engaging in any of the above conduct will be subject to discipline by the Employer. Discipline may include loss of seniority or discharge.

ARTICLE XVII

The management of the business and the direction of the working force including, but not limited to, the right to hire, assign employees to work shifts, suspend, promote, transfer or discharge for just cause and the right to relieve employees from duty because of lack of work or for other legitimate reasons is vested exclusively in management.
- b. In the event of change of equipment, management shall have the right to reduce the workforce if in the sole judgement of management, such reduction of force is required and nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to restrict the right of management to adopt or install or operate new or improved equipment or methods of operation. Disputes over application of this provision should be discussed between the affected parties.
- c. Nothing herein contained shall be intended or shall be considered as a waiver of any of the usual inherent and fundamental rights of management, whether or not the same were exercised heretofore and the same are hereby expressly reserved to the Employer.

ARTICLE XVIII

This Agreement shall be in full force and effect on April 1, 2005, irrespective of the date of execution of this Agreement, to and including March 31, 2008, and shall continue to be in full force and effect for successive yearly periods after March 31, 2008, unless notice is given in writing by either the Employer or the Union to the other party at least sixty (60) days prior to March 31, 2008, or any anniversary date thereafter, of its desire to modify, amend or terminate this Agreement. If such notice is given, this Agreement shall be open to modification, amendment or termination, as such notice may indicate, on March 31, 2008, or the subsequent anniversary date, as the case may be.

ARTICLE XIX

Miscellaneous and Procedural Provisions

Section 1. Notice

Any notice required under the terms of this Agreement may be given and shall be deemed delivered if mailed, postage prepaid by United States mail, certified or registered, and return receipt requested, to either party at the address designated after signature of this Agreement, or at such other address as either party may hereafter designate by a notice.

Section 2. Severability

If a court of last resort, with jurisdiction over a dispute involving this Agreement, adjudges any law, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this Agreement which shall continue in effect. Section 7. Counterparts and Execution

All Employers so represented as evidenced by said authorizations, are hereby bound by all of the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement may otherwise be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original agreement, and all of which shall constitute one agreement, notwithstanding the fact that all of the parties are not signatories to the original or same document.
