They shall use their best efforts to resolve the grievance. If the grievance is not resolved in the first step, it may be referred to the second step if the specific nature of the grievance is first reduced to writing. If the parties have not mutually agreed to an arbitrator, the parties shall then request a panel of seven (7) to eleven (11) arbitrators' names from the State Mediation and Conciliation Service. After receipt of the list, the parties shall attempt to agree upon an arbitrator from such list. If they are unable to agree, names will be stricken from said list in the following manner. Under such circumstances, after a grievance has been reduced to writing, the grieving party may request a second step meeting within three (3) working days. The responding party will provide an answer in writing, if denied, within two (2) working days from the close of the grievance meeting. Within three (3) working days from the written response, the grievance party may then request, with notice to the responding party, that the grievance be referred to expedite arbitration.
