CONSTITUTION

NEW ENGLAND AGRICULTURAL ECONOMICS COUNCIL

The name of the organization shall be:

"New England Agricultural Economics Council"

1. Purpose. The purpose of the Council shall be to stimulate and promote education and research on economic and social problems related to the production, marketing, and consumption of agricultural products; and the inter-relation of agriculture and the rest of the economy.
2. Organization. The Council is organized as a group of professional agricultural economists and other persons interested in promoting the purpose of the Council.
3. Nonaffiliation. The Council shall be an independent body without official affiliation with any institution, organization, or agency either public or private.
