DISCUSSION REPORT (Paper by Messrs. H.N. Riley,
K.M. Harrison & N. Suárez)

The initial discussion on this paper was centred on the level of profit that industries should be entitled to if price controls are established on goods. This it was stated would depend on the particular circumstances in the community concerned and the particular commodity.

There was then discussion on the different types of price control established in Colombia. These were discussed in relation to the problems facing St. Vincent.
