Guidelines for Submitting Manuscripts

To aid in reviewing manuscripts and for efficient publication of the Journal, contributors are requested to use the following guidelines in preparing manuscripts for submission to the WJAE:

1. Cover letter. The author must indicate in a cover letter (a) why the manuscript would interest WJAE readers; (b) whether the material in the manuscript (or modification thereof) has been published, is being published, or has been submitted for publication elsewhere; (c) that the material in the manuscript, to the best of the author's knowledge, does not infringe upon other published material protected by copyright; and (d) that the author has read and agrees to the policy outlined in the next paragraph.
2. Data and estimation process. Authors should report, describe, and/or reference the complete estimation process undertaken to derive the results presented in the manuscript. This should include data documentation as well as model specifications estimated but not reported in the manuscript. Authors are expected to make data used available at cost upon request for a reasonable period.
3. Cover page. Provide a cover page with the article title and author name(s), and title(s), placing institutional affiliation(s) and acknowledgments of colleague reviews and institutional support as an unnumbered footnote at the bottom of the page. Place only the article title on the first page of the text.
4. Typing. Use double-spaced typing on 8½ by 11 inch paper with 1¼ inch margins throughout the manuscript, including footnotes and references. Number all pages. Type on one side of the paper.
5. Style. Use a consistent style as indicated by a professional manual of style. An example is A Manual of Style, University of Chicago Press.
6. Footnotes. Number footnotes consecutively through the manuscript. Type the content of the footnotes on separate pages placed after the main text.
7. References. List all references cited in the text in alphabetical order of the author's last name on separate pages after the main text. Do not number references. Identify citations in the text by reference to the author's last name. Citations may appear parenthetically or as part of the text. Use the author's name plus publication date for citations to different references by the same author.
8. Tables. Prepare tables in desired form and place each table on a separate page at the end of the text, following the footnote page. Double space throughout. Begin the table's title at the left margin above the table's body using the following format:
Table 3. Regression Results
Review of tables for accuracy is the author's responsibility.
9. Figures. Submit final drafts of camera-ready copy of figures, charts, and graphs drawn in a professional manner. Place each figure on a separate page of heavy white paper or acetate sheet using black india ink for photographic reproduction at the end of the text. Begin the figure's title at the left margin below the figure using the following format:
Review of figures for accuracy is the author's responsibility.
10. Mathematical formulation. Avoid excessive mathematical expression and notation. When mathematical expressions are needed, check carefully for clarity in formulation. Use standard mathematical symbols to the extent possible.
11. Abstract. Enclose an abstract of 100 words or less on a separate page.
12. Manuscript length. It is expected that typed manuscripts will not exceed 25 pages including text, footnotes, references, tables, and figures.
13. Publication costs. Publication costs for the WJAE are largely financed by page charges levied on authors of manuscripts accepted for publication. Hence, authors submitting manuscripts are expected to assume obligation for payment of page charges at the time their articles are published. Page charges currently are $60 per printed page. Additional information on page charge policies can be obtained from the editors.
14. Four copies. Send four legible copies to the editors. Receipt of manuscripts will be acknowledged by return mail.
