Acknowledgements

The Director and Staff of the Centre for Agricultural Strategy acknowledge with thanks the encouragement and assistance of the many persons, some representing outside bodies, who made the organisation of the seminar possible.

They also wish to thank publicly the Sponsors who supported the Centre in so practical a fashion.

World Wildlife Fund (WWF), Panda House, Godalming

WWF is an international fund-raising organisation which since its establishment in 1961 has spent £40m on 6000 projects in 135 countries. WWF UK, as part of the international organisation, spends up to £395 000 a year on UK projects, which include land purchase, management, education, research, survey, publications and others.

Countryside Commission, Cheltenham

The Countryside Commission is the statutory body concerned with the protection of the natural beauty of the countryside of England and Wales and assuring that proper provision is made for its enjoyment by the general public.

Council for Environmental Conservation, Regents Park

The Council for Environmental Conservation (CoEnCo) is an independent national charity which aims to co-ordinate and extend the involvement of voluntary organisations in current environmental issues, act as a resource centre for them and provide a forum for discussion and action.

Knight, Frank & Rutley
